Save The Date

The European Commission Directorate General for Enterprise & Industry invites you to 'Save The Date' for an information seminar on the issue of late payment and a new European Directive (2011/7/EU) aimed at tackling the problem.

This information seminar, part of the European Commission's Late Payment Information Campaign, provides businesses and interested stakeholders with a unique opportunity to better understand the issues relating to late payment, and learn more about the application and benefits of the new directive.
